2018 Carpenter Lecture
Thursday, March 1st
6:30 to 8pm
Clackamas Community College
Wilsonville Campus
29353 Town Center Loop E
Wilsonville, OR 97070

2018 Speaker: Dr. Joanne Truesdell, President of Clackamas Community College and CCL alumna

2018 Lecture Topic
Trust, the Promise Cycle and Shared Governance

The leader’s call is to fulfill the Mission. It is the interconnectedness of the elements of trust, promises and shared governance that support engagement in the mission and the delivery of the community college promise.

Charles E. Carpenter Lecture & Conference Endowment
Established in 2004, the Charles E. Carpenter Lecture and Conference Endowment supports advances in professional development for community college leaders. Held each spring, the Carpenter Lecture features a nationally known speaker on a topic of importance to community colleges. In addition to current students in the community college leadership doctoral program, attendees include northwest community college leaders and members of the OSU community. The Carpenter Event has become a premier professional development event for community college leaders and has significantly advanced Oregon State University’s work in community college leadership.
